

Kanagawa University 2023/2024 Japanese Language and Culture Program

Kanagawa University offers a short-term intensive language program that is open to individuals from countries around the world. Focusing on Japanese language study, the program's objective is to improve Japanese proficiency and deepen understanding of both traditional Japanese culture and various aspects of contemporary Japan by taking classes related to Japan, going on fieldtrips and having the opportunity to directly experience the tea ceremony, calligraphy, and so forth. Opportunities to interact with Kanagawa University students have also been incorporated into the program.

<Eligibility>

- 18 years old or over on the first day of the program
- Those who are enrolled in an undergraduate course (equivalent to a Japanese university's 4-year degree course) or who have obtained a "Bachelor's degree". (Those who have only graduated high school are not eligible to apply)
- Japanese language level of N3 or less
*Those who have no knowledge of hiragana and katakana, we will ask you to submit a designated assignment in advance.
- Those who can arrange their own visa, if necessary (we will send you an acceptance letter after you are accepted.)
- Those who have the English capability to follow a lecture in English (Hands-on Experience of Japanese Culture and Lectures About Japan are conducted in English)
- Those who can be insured with Overseas Travel Insurance designated by Kanagawa University

【NOTE】

This program is mainly for students of our partner universities.

If you are not from one of our partner universities, in case that there is still a vacancy after the application deadline, your application will be accepted. We will contact you after the application period has finished.

Please first send the application form.
